

João Delgado

Data supplying and advising on fisheries and mid trophic level for Madeira.

Natacha Nogueira and José A. Carvalho

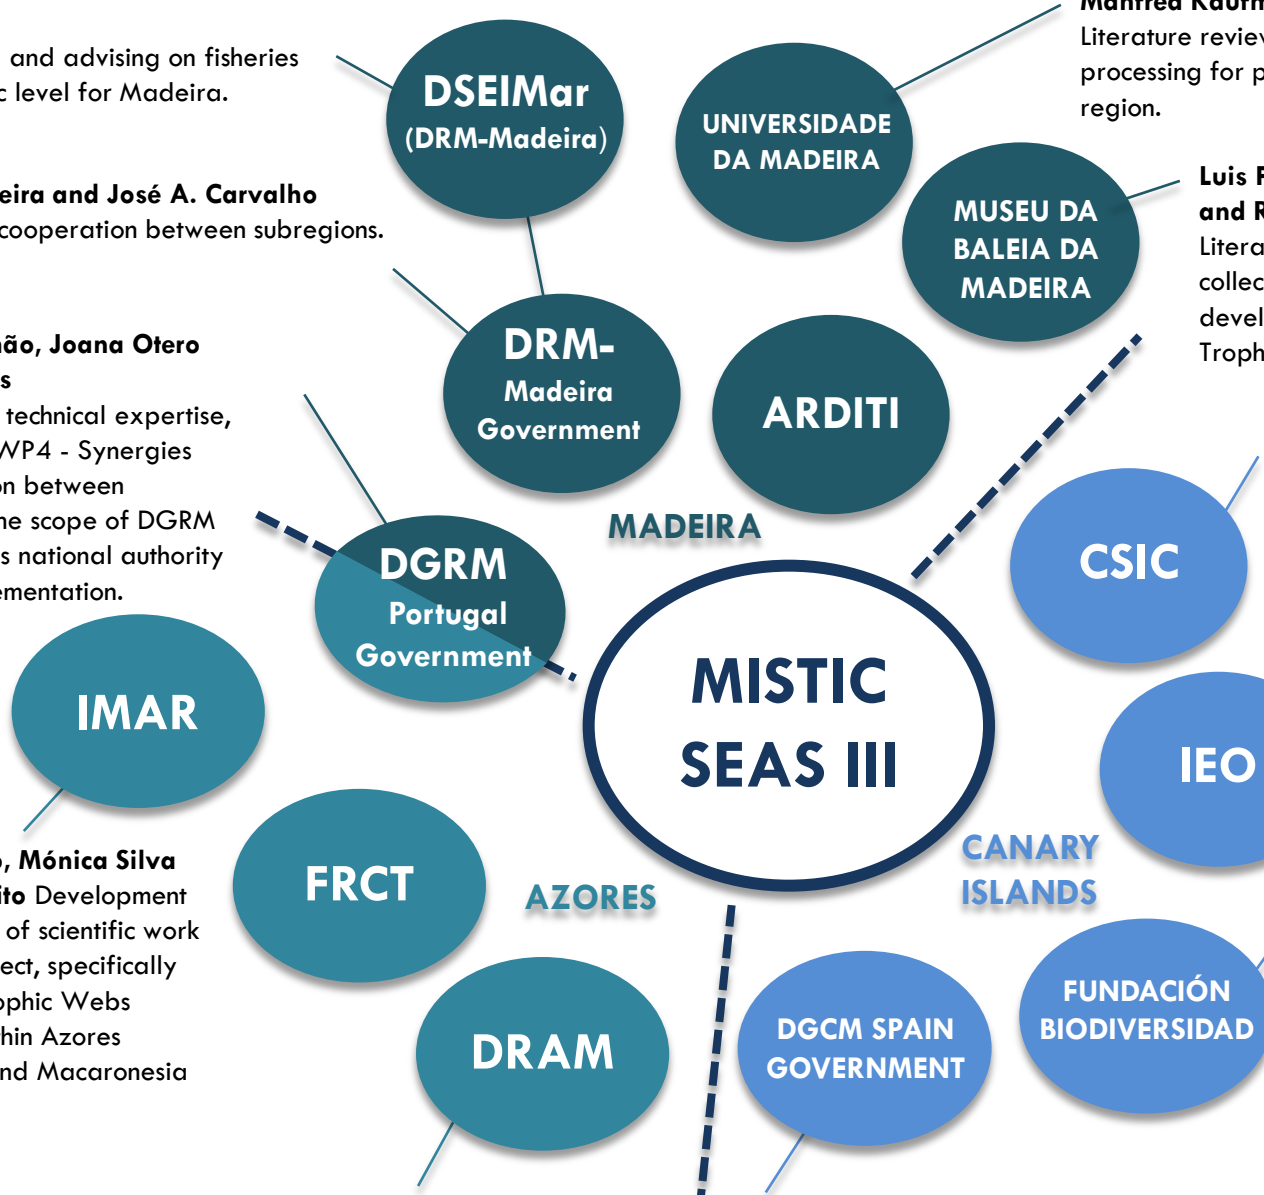

Synergies and cooperation between subregions.

Ana Paula Simão, Joana Otero and Vera Lopes

Contribute with technical expertise, particularly in WP4 - Synergies and cooperation between subregions, in the scope of DGRM competencies as national authority for MSFD implementation.

Telmo Morato, Mónica Silva and Joana Brito Development and execution of scientific work under the project, specifically the Marine Trophic Webs assessment within Azores archipelago and Macaronesia Subregion.

Inês Barros, José Nuno Pereira and Gilberto Carreira Project follow-up and technical reports. Linkage between DRAM and IMAR scientific team.

DSEIMar
(DRM-Madeira)

UNIVERSIDADE DA MADEIRA

MUSEU DA BALEIA DA MADEIRA

DRM-Madeira Government

ARDITI

DGRM Portugal Government

IMAR

FRCT

DRAM

DGCN SPAIN GOVERNMENT

FUNDACIÓN BIODIVERSIDAD

IEO

CSIC

Manfred Kaufmann and Inma Herrera

Literature review, data gathering, sample collection and processing for phyto and zooplankton within the Madeira region.

Luis Freitas, Philippe Verborgh, Luis Outeiro and Ruth Esteban

Literature review, data gathering, sample collection, indicators' optimization and development of ecotrophic model for Marine Trophic Webs assessment within Madeira.

Graham Pierce and Gema Hernández

Work organization, literature review, sample analysis, report and article writing.

Izaskun Preciado Expert advisor on food webs, report writing and Camilo Saavedra Review and update of monitoring programs looking for synergies between D1, D3 and D4.

Víctor Gutiérrez, Sonia Ortega, Reyes del Río and Esther Zabala contribute in the tasks of communication and elaboration of informative materials. Lorena Couce to select the indicators in coordinated studies with CSIC, Sara Pérez Layout and Design and Global Animal Health audiovisual production.

Francisco J. Martínez Bedía and Lucía Martínez García-Denche

Technical advice regarding the approach for MSFD implementation, link with regional authorities and national policy for the Protection of the Sea.